We are a leading manufacturer of steam generators and cleaning equipment.

Dear Partners,

This document contains the links to download marketing and sale support images in high resolution for professional printing and corporate use.

For catalogues and technical sheets, please download the pdf files directly from the dedicated sectors of our website. Menikini hosts a large video archive on its Youtube channel. If needed you can download videos directly with browser plug ins or online downloaders. For special requests on material for advertising spaces, exhibitions and workshops, please get in contact with our marketing department.

Best Regards,

Massimiliano Menichini
